Assistance

1.List any ways that LESI can assist in your societies' activities.

As always we would appreciate to have the support of LESI mostly through the participation of speakers in our events and providing LES MEXICO with available materials that can be distributed to our membership.

LES MEXICO is interested in translating the Train the Trainers course into Spanish language (Mexican style). This brings the possibility to use the translated materials for providing the course in Mexico in a language accessible to our membership and to promote the affiliation to LES MEXICO to other interested people by using the course as part of the benefits of pertaining to our society, since we would try to schedule to give this course in Mexico on a regular basis.
