How can LESI or other LES Societies further support you?

Our main efforts this year are focused on organizing and hosting LES Pan European Conference, on 10-11 October 2023 in Jerusalem. More details will be updated soon at the event website:

HOME - LES Israel 2023 \(les-israel2023.org\).

We would appreciate receiving support in connection with said conference, both from LESI and LES National Societies. Specifically, assistance with the following:

- * Promoting both attendance and registration.
- * Distributing information regarding the call for submissions of proposed sessions and presentations that was just launched (<https://les-israel2023.org/call-for-submissions/>).
- * Funding and exploring sponsorship opportunities;

Another matter, it would be great if LESI and LES Societies worldwide will continue to share educational contents and enable our members to participate online in their seminars, at no cost (or at a significantly reduced rate for group registration).
